BUT no complete picture of the range of places to go — nor of the things to do — in this vacation empire can be set down in one piece of printed literature.

STAND in wonderment at boiling mud pots, steam vents, hot springs and geysers . . . explore the bottom of the continent, Death Valley, or stand on its top — Mt. Whitney. Visit moving, living glaciers . . . explore ghost towns, old mines, historic spots — feel the spirit of the pioneers of the west!

A SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE: Two nationally famous rivers . . . the West Walker and the Owens teeming with large trout . . . hundreds of smaller streams . . . more well-stocked lakes than any other area of like size . . . the home of the Golden trout . . . amazing Hot Creek . . . all these and more for the fisherman. . . Dove, Quail, Pheasant, Ducks in season with plenty of open hunting territory. . . . Deer, including the wily Inyo buck, are plentiful.

DAY SIGHTSEEING TRIPS include such famous names and places as: Lake Tahoe, Virginia City and Reno — seen from the Topaz-Walker river sector . . . Bodie, Aurora, Mono Mills, and boat trips on Mono Lake from the Bridgeport-Leevining centers . . . Toulumne meadows to the floor of Yosemite Valley from any point in the northern end of Inyo, Mono, Tonopah, Goldfield, and the mines near Benton from the Bishop-Long Valley district desert and mining districts . . . Panamint and the southern sec-
